Adelaide Dunn Founder of Southwest Section

Adelaide Dunn joined the Dayton, Ohio Branch of the National Association of University Women in 1946. She was very active in the Branch. In 1952 she married James Dunn and moved to Los Angeles, California. She organized the Los Angeles Branch and was the first West Sectional Director.

The Compton Branch was organized in 1964 by

Adelaide. The name of the Branch was later changed to South Bay Branch. She was the first president for the Branch and remained active until her death.

Adelaide was responsible for initiating the organization of the West Coast Cities Branch and Julia B. Williams was the organizer and first president.

Currently there are 9 Branches in the Southwest Section of NAUW. They are all located in California.

Southwest to Host the Awards Banquet at Centennial Convention

The Branches of the Southwest are busy looking for sponsors for the Awards Banquet to be held at the National Convention in August 2010. The convention will be held in Washington D.C. where our organization was founded. If you are interested in being a sponsor please go to our website and down load a sponsorship application. The website is: <http://nauw1910-sw.org>
